

DISABILITY RIGHTS

at University Legal Services

Client Assistance Program-DRDC:

- Provides information regarding RSA client rights and responsibilities,
- Advocates at Individual Plan for Employment (IPE) meetings,
- Represents individuals with disabilities with claims against RSA at:
  - Administrative Reviews,
  - Mediation, and
  - Impartial Hearings.

Who should contact CAP-DRDC?

- Individuals with a disability that is a barrier to employment who want to work.
- Individuals with disabilities who need support for transition to post-secondary education.
- Parents/guardians of students with disabilities who need more information about what services RSA provides and the processes for securing those services.

What types of issues can CAP-DRDC help with?

- If an individual applies to RSA and does not receive a response.
- If an individual is confused about RSA procedures and/or regulations.
- If an individual is having issues communicating with his/her RSA Counselor.
- If an individual is not getting the services they need from RSA.

How to contact CAP-DRDC:

Client Assistance Program
Disability Rights DC at University Legal Services
Protection and Advocacy Program
220 I Street, N.E., Suite 130
Washington, D.C. 20002
T: 202-547-1098
mcowley@uls-dc.org