DC RESIDENT?
YOU MAY BE ABLE TO VOTE IN ALL PRIMARY, GENERAL &
SPECIAL ELECTIONS!
REGISTER TO VOTE TODAY

1 Determine if You Qualify to Vote in DC: Incarcerated DC
residents have the right to vote while incarcerated. You can register to vote in DC, if you meet all of the following criteria:

- You are a U.S. Citizen
- Are at least 16 years old (You may pre-register to vote if you are at least 16 years old. You may vote in a primary election if you are at least 17 years old and you will be at least 18 years old by the next general election. You may vote in a general or special election if you are at least 18 years old.)
- You are a resident of the District of Columbia. This means that you lived in DC for the 30 days prior to your current incarceration.
- A judge has not ruled that you are incapable of voting.
- You do not claim residence or the right to vote in another U.S. state or territory.

2 Fill Out the DC Voter Registration Application: A copy of the form is attached, as is a sample form. The chart below tells you how to fill out each line of the Voter Registration Application. Write with a pen as clearly as possible. If the Board of Elections cannot read your handwriting, they cannot register you.
